ALBANY, MISSOURI

An All-Female Offering

TO BE HELD ON

The Nodaway County Fair Grounds

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI

9:00 A. M.

FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1920

Foreword

IT WAS at the Central Shorthorn Breeders' sale at Kansas City in 1917 that the name of J. H. Degginger was first registered as a purchaser of Shorthorns. Since that time his presence has been felt at a majority of the more important auctions of the breed, and the manner in which he has confined his bidding to individuals of rare breeding and merit has made him one of the most conspicuous figures in the history of recent Shorthorn auctions.

Called to the colors, his herd as originally assembled was closed out at private treaty and later sold at auction by C. B. Baldwin, Hedrick, Ia., at a noteworthy average of $2,050, exceeded by few sales before or since. The results of this event reflected direct credit upon his judgment of modern Shorthorns.

In reestablishing his herd he has had the benefits of this previous experience, and that he has done it in a most able manner is not to be questioned.

It is out of his present collection that he is selecting his first sale offering, all females, adhering to breeding of such richness as to hold the enthusiasm of the most ardent students of Shorthorn lineage. Few offerings have ever compared with it, and there is no question but that it will require more to fill the vacancies in his herd caused by this draft than his offering will bring, no matter how highly they may be appreciated.

But, as a conspicuous figure in American Shorthorns, men have a right to expect the unusual from his hands, and he is sparing no effort to measure up to the impression which breeders in general hold of him.

WALTER L. MILLER,
In The Breeders' Gazette of May 20.

General Information

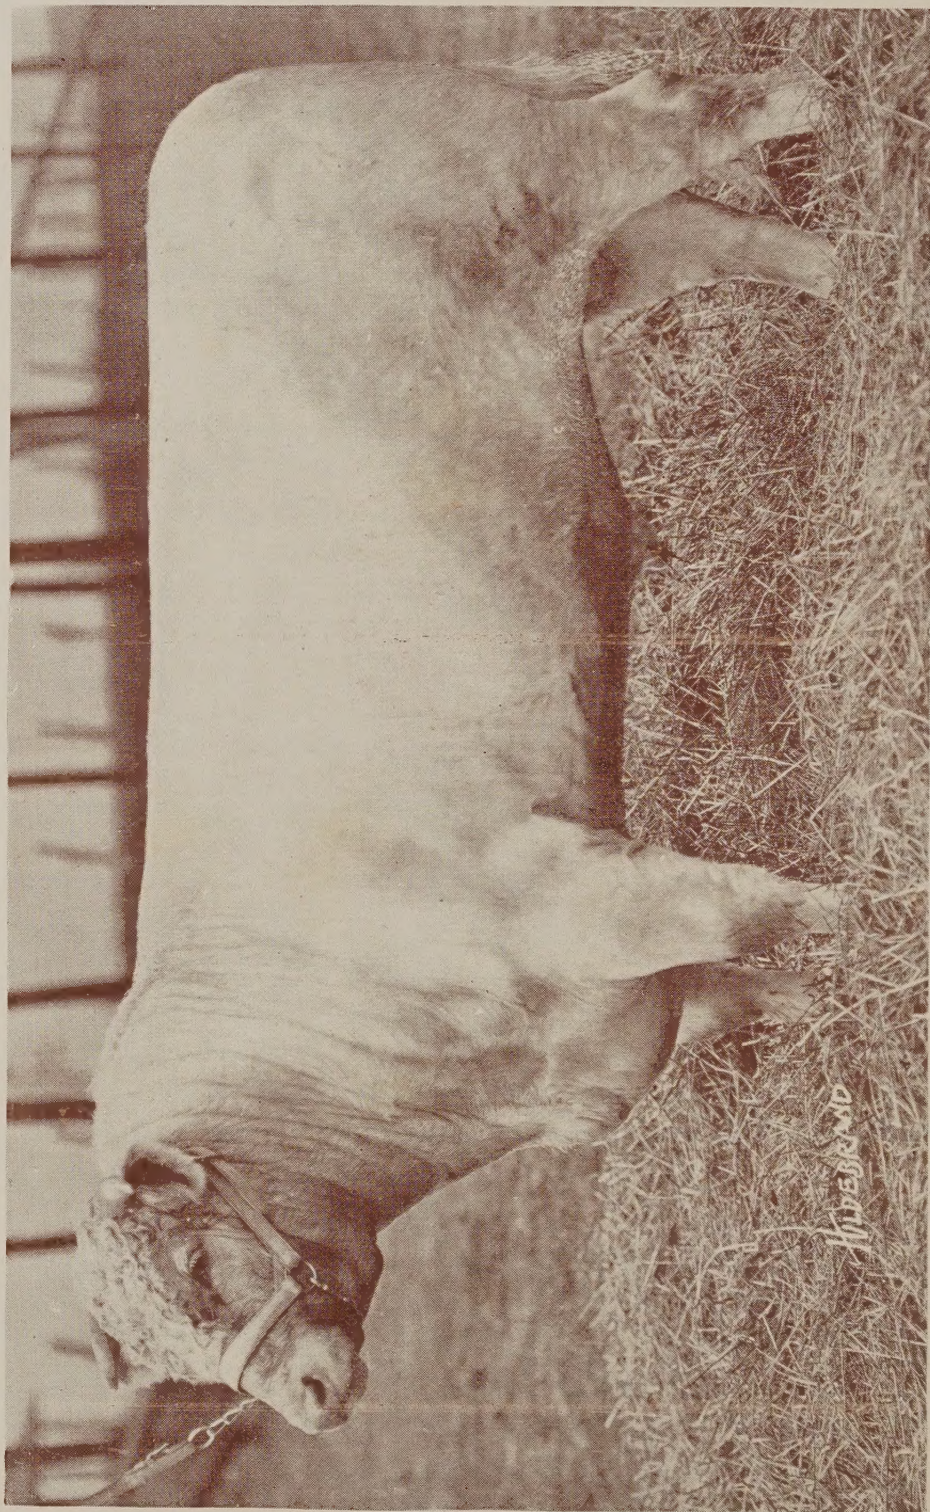

Guarantee—Every animal sold as a single lot is guaranteed a breeder. Cows in calf or with calves at foot show evidence of breeding and no further guarantee is given. All other cows and heifers of breeding age shall prove to be in calf or get in calf, but if they do not after a reasonable trial period they may be returned and another animal of equal value will be given in exchange, purchaser paying freight. No animals will be offered that are considered the least doubtful.

Tuberculin Test—Cattle are sold subject to sixty day re-test by Federal authorities or state veterinary, notice to be sent in seventy days.

Terms—Cash.

Location and Time of Sale—Sale will be held on the Nodaway County Fair Grounds, at 9:00 a. m., Friday, June 18. Cattle at owner's risk as soon as bid off but will be cared for and loaded out free of charge.
